

“Minimum Pricing of Alcohol - Myths, Fears and Realities”

FREE workshop for professionals to explore the findings and results of a study investigating the potential consequences of introducing a minimum price for alcohol in Wales – with a specific focus on the possibility of ‘substance switching’.

SOCIAL RESEARCH NUMBER:
48/2019
PUBLICATION DATE:
24/10/2019

Research into the potential for substance switching following the introduction of minimum pricing for alcohol in Wales

Mwy o ddogfen yma hefyd ar gael yn Gymraeg.
This document is also available in Welsh.
ODL © Crown Copyright Digital ISBN 978-1-43533-367-6

Report available at:

<https://gov.wales/minimum-pricing-alcohol-research-potential-consequences>

Thursday 5th December 2019, 1.15 – 4.15pm at:
Lysaght Institute, Orb Drive, Corporation Rd, Newport, NP19 0RA

- Come and hear from the research team who will share the findings and recommendations of the research.
- You will have the opportunity to explore the implications of the research for services and those who will be impacted when MPA is introduced in Wales on 2nd March 2020.
- WHO IS THE WORKSHOP FOR: All those working in the field of substance misuse including treatment providers, commissioners and policy makers – as well as connected disciplines such as housing, homelessness, mental health, criminal justice etc.

Places are limited and are available on a first come, first served basis. A light lunch and refreshments will be provided.

To book your place, please email your name, service name and email address to: enquiries@f8c.co.uk

Research conducted by:

Event sponsored by:

